

Jointly presented by :

香港浸會大學校友會
Hong Kong Baptist University
Alumni Association

Career Development Seminar

HONG KONG BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION
香港浸會大學工商管理學院校友會

Financial Analyst - An Insider's Story

Speaker Dr. Alex Tang

Date 14 January 2017 (Saturday)

Venue Room RRS 905
Sir Run Run Shaw Building
Ho Sin Hang Campus
Hong Kong Baptist University

Time 2:15 – 5:30 PM

Registration online
<https://goo.gl/forms/PDxVKOUYfqZEbwex2> or email Dr. Arnold Chan at acbkfam@gmail.com with name/phone/department/year of graduation/
University (HKBU / UIC)

Join HKBUAA at <http://iczk.qr.ai>

e~application

E-Registration

About The Speakers

Alumnus Dr. Alex Tang (鄧以旭)

Alex Tang graduated with a B.Sc. Degree (distinction) from the University of Wisconsin and acquired his master's degree in Economics at the Chinese University of HK. He obtained his doctoral degree (DBA- distinction) from the HKBU. Mr. Tang gained his practical financial evaluation experience over 35 years with several large companies, including the Hong Kong Productivity Center, China Light & Power Limited, Levesque Securities in Vancouver, Dao Heng Securities, Yamaichi Securities and Core Pacific-Yamaichi International (HK) Ltd. He had extensive media coverage on his views about the markets during the years while he was working for securities firms. "Red Chips" and "Red Chip Index" are terms first coined by him. During 2009-2011, he was a visiting associate professor of United International College (UIC), teaching stock valuation. From 2012 till the present, Mr. Tang has been a part-time lecturer at the HKBU, teaching technical analysis.

Publications since 2002:

《估與股》經要文化， 2002

《釋股》經世文化 Econworld Publishing Limited, 2007

Stock Valuation and Financial Modeling. Economic Digest Publishing. 2010

《技术分析要义》， 亮光文化 2016